

Wanstall Consulting Wills & Estate Planning

FREE ½ hour Consultations

After my first career in the Army, I have been a solicitor in Home Counties law firms for over 20 years. I have now set up my own specialist Wills and Estate Planning Consultancy, based from Wendover, where I provide personalised and specialist legal advice to both military (serving and retired) and non-military clients on:

- Wills
- Estate Planning
- Succession Planning
- Later Life Advice
- Lasting Powers of Attorney
- Estate Administration and other related areas

Once Covid restrictions have been removed, I will be holding free Wills and Estate Planning clinics at the TCC one day every other week for a free ½ hour consultation on Wills, powers of attorney and related matters. These are currently available via videocall at any time.

Covid19 Update

With the current social distancing, I am still holding most of my meetings face to face, but now, via videocalls rather than in person. This offers:

- The same level of advice and service as normal, but with more flexibility, whenever suits you, day or evening and any day.
- Peace of mind – you still receive specialist, personal and bespoke advice, but without any social distancing concerns.

I am pleased to hold a registered Armed Forces Covenant and offer a 10% discount for any legal advice I provide to all military personnel and their families, whether serving or retired.

“Keep busy, keep well and keep smiling!”
